

Five winners of the 1st annual Victor Yen Scholarships

Electro Optical Components announces the winners of the 1st annual Victor Yen Scholarship for excellence in academics in the sciences. The five winners from Sonoma State University have excelled academically and philanthropically.

Student	Major
Megan Cantrell	Biology
Kelsi Espinoza	Statistics
Natalie Hambalek	Biology & ENSP
Chio Saephan	Electrical Engineering
Ortal Yahdav	Computer Science

Good luck to them all.

Victor Yen who died January, 2012 would be honored by these winners. He, too, was an excellent student who received a BS degree from the University of Redlands and received a MS in Aeronautical Engineering from California Institute of Technology. He taught Engineering at Tri-State College in Indiana and later worked in industry at Ford Motor Company, OCLI, Optoelectronics and Cal Sensors before founding Electro Optical Components in 1997. He was a pioneer in the Infrared Filter and Detector industry.
